What You Can Do as a Parent (Without Taking Over)

Your support matters, but so does their voice. Coaches want to hear directly from the athlete, not just the parent.

Here's how to stay involved (the right way):

- ✓ Help build a spreadsheet to track coach outreach
- ✓ Proofread emails, but let them press send
- ✓ Encourage accountability around grades, deadlines, and follow-ups
- ✓ Celebrate effort, not just offers
- ✓ Remind them: the offer is not the finish line it's just one step

The goal is guidance, not control. Let them lead with you in their corner.
